Residential childcare programs are licensed by the Social Services Administration in accord with Code of Maryland Annotated Regulations 14.31.06. These programs serve neglected, abused, and/or abandoned children who cannot be adequately assisted in other settings. Staff persons employed by residential child care programs are charged to treat these children in crisis so that they might move, in a designated time frame, to less restrictive placements.

CENTRAL HEADQUARTERS LISTINGS

Not all licensed residential child care programs have a central headquarters listing. If the office is located at a single address for a program, a headquarters will not usually be listed. All programs with more than one licensed location will have a central headquarters listing, even if it is located in one of the licensed locations. If a headquarters is located in an office where residents are not in placement, the office itself will not be licensed.
